

New River Youth Symphony and Chorus

News of Note

November 14, 2011

November 28 & December 5 Rehearsals will be at Oak Hill High School at the usual time.

Concert Dress Black pants or long black skirt and black dress shirt or blouse, relatively simple, long sleeved, and modest. The skirt should be below the knee when the student is sitting. Shoes should be black dress shoes (no open toes) with black socks or black nylons or black tights.

The Chorus will wear red ties for the men and red scarves for the ladies. These ties and scarves are made especially for the Chorus and will be checked out to the students at the concert and returned after the concert. Chorus members must wear flat heels and no dangling earrings.

The Beginner Chorus will wear red dresses with black tights and black shoes for the girls and white shirts with black pants, black socks, black shoes, and black bowties for the boys.

Parent Volunteer Help Please let Kathy Bailey know if you are willing to help with concert setup, programs, etc.

Rest & Food Since the holiday season is so busy and can be stressful at times, please help your NRYSC student to be rested and fresh for the concerts. Please do not have your NRYSC student eat candy or drink soda within one hour of the rehearsal before a concert.

Admission Fee The Historic Fayette Theatre charges a $5 admission fee, with children seven and under free. NRYSC families will have two free tickets.

Directions to Beckley Presbyterian Church

Directions to the Historic Fayette Theatre

From Route 19, take the Fayetteville Court Street Exit. After the Courthouse, you will see the Historic Fayette Theatre on your left. Parking is available in the Board of Education parking lot. Take the first left after the Theatre, onto Fayette Avenue.

Music Stands All Symphony students need to bring a music stand for both concerts. Return black concert folders at December 10 concert.
